REUNION REGISTRATION and BUFFET LUNCHEON FEES ARE COMBINED. Because we are often asked what becomes of the monies generated at our reunions, a short recap is as follows: After we pay the hotel for their facilities and for the luncheon, we use any monies left over to help defray the expenses of the reunion. This includes your name tags, registration packets, cost of hotel facilities; reunion expenses such as printing materials for the reunion; mailing expenses, and reunion letter costs. Your cousins who are involved in the reunion donate their time and money, and no one is paid. Our aim is to see, to the best of our ability, that the reunion is an enjoyable time for all.
